

Dr. Taofeng Liu
email: liutaofeng@zzu.edu.cn
ORCID :0000-0002-3795-5770

Liu Taofeng, male, born in February 1988, Ph.D., assistant professor, doctoral supervisor, is currently the director of the International Cooperation and Exchange Center of the School of Physical Education (Headquarters) of Zhengzhou University. He was awarded the academic and technical leader of the Henan Provincial Department of Education, the outstanding young and middle-aged backbone teacher of Henan Province, the national philosophy and social science fund project communication review expert, the Ministry of Education humanities and social science fund project communication review expert, and the communication review expert of more than 20 magazines. National University Teacher General Professional Certification Expert, Director of National School Sports Federation (Sports), Director of Asian Rehabilitation and Sports Association, Editorial Board of Journals of Asian Health and Sports Association.

Published more than 20 academic papers; presided over and participated in the completion of 1 National Social Science Fund project, 5 provincial and ministerial-level topics, 3 department-level topics, published 1 monograph, participated in editing 1; won the first national scientific research paper award 2 There are 1 second prize, 3 third prizes, and 10 provincial and ministerial first prizes.